Athens: the City to Share Your Ideas

Some of humanity’s most exciting ideas were born in Athens, and from here they were shared with the world. This could be due to the fine weather; Or the inspiring scenery; Or, if you prefer, the Athenian attitude towards life.

Whatever the reason, great ideas seem to have always reached the most distant places when coming from this unique place of Europe. Enhanced by its state-of-the-art venues and facilities, Athens today can meet the demands of any event and always deliver an impeccable result.

Bring your event to Athens. Get inspired. Share your ideas.
I would like to take this opportunity to invite you to Athens, a lively, cosmopolitan metropolis, harmoniously reconciling the past and the present. Athens is a city with three UNESCO heritage sites, the longest pedestrian archeological walk in Europe, the birthplace of Plato’s symposium and with an innate capacity for organizing social gatherings.

A city endowed with year-round sunshine, the European capital city with the most blue flag beaches, a booming gastronomic scene where Mediterranean fusions open up new gourmet flavors, and warm, hospitable people. In addition to world class cultural heritage attractions, in Athens you will find new high-end convention facilities, newly built or recently renovated hotels, a vibrant entertainment scene and a state-of-the-art transportation network to accommodate the needs of the most demanding of events.

Athens is a destination with unique dynamic and great potential. Conferences, company meetings, exhibitions and incentive travel constitute the core of the local tourism industry and a strategic priority for the City of Athens. In this direction, the Athens Convention & Visitors Bureau is committed, through its team of highly experienced and motivated professionals, to providing you assistance and sophisticated, tailor-made solutions to guarantee the success of your event.

With these thoughts, I invite you to bring your event to Athens. To a city that has the infrastructure and the know-how to successfully organize events. To a city that knows how to guarantee new thrills and that longs to leave its mark in the hearts of all its visitors.

I look forward to welcoming you to Athens!

Georgios Kaminis
Mayor of Athens
Welcome to Athens

the historical capital of Europe, with a long, rich history and modern vibrations. What is it that makes more and more travelers annually choose Athens as their destination – for business or pleasure, in winter or summer? Could it be its long list of things to see and do, and its lovely – most of the time – weather conditions? Or is it perhaps because Athens is ranked amongst the safest European capitals? Not to forget, it is a city where functionality, culture and indulgence meet: from the efficient, user-friendly transportation network and some of the world’s most important museums and archaeological monuments, to the awarded, high-quality restaurants that cater to every taste.

You will find the Greek capital emerging between stunning coast and mountain lines of natural beauty and breathtaking landscapes. Located at the crossroads of three continents and multiple civilizations throughout history, its close-to-four million population constitutes a hub of many cultures. Most importantly, its welcoming and hospitable culture and people make every visitor feel at home.

The Athenian metropolis is steadily turning into a highly connected city, one direct flight at a time. This is due to an increasing number of international carriers flying into Athens’ new and award-winning airport every year.

Athens is an ideal congress destination, combining state-of-the-art infrastructure, excellent conference facilities and easy access from all over the world, with world-class cultural attractions, modern amenities, diverse entertainment and natural beauty. Even more, the Athenian accommodation product is wrapped in a well-polished package due to an extensive renovation for the upcoming, at that time, 2004 Olympic Games. Thus, the city offers a superior experience for contemporary visitors with comfortable and stylish accommodation, and thoughtful and outstanding services.

This is Athens! The official City of Athens guide
GENERAL INFORMATION

LANGUAGE

The native language of the population is Modern Greek. English is widely spoken as a second language by the majority of Greeks, while French and German are also spoken to a good extent.

Greece is two hours ahead of Greenwich Mean Time, seven hours ahead of Eastern Standard Time and an hour ahead of Central European Time.

HEALTH

Emergency treatment is free to all visitors in public hospitals.

CURRENCY

Greece has been a full member of the European Union since 1981, and its currency is the Euro (€). All major credit cards are widely accepted in Greece.

VISA INFORMATION

Greece follows the Schengen Agreement provision and the subsequent acquis concerning short term visa issues stays of up to three (3) months in the Schengen area. Holders of regular passports from the rest of the world need a visa to be able to visit Greece (and the rest of the Schengen area).
WHY ATHENS

Athens offers a diverse product, combining the qualities of a contemporary metropolis with those of a remarkable archaeological heritage—evident in every part of the city.

It is this very quality that turns each convention into a big success. From Plato’s “Symposium”, to today’s international, European and national meetings, the “innate Athenian capacity for social gatherings” brings out the best in yourself, turning your convention into a rare experience.

So, before you decide on your conference’s next host city, here are the top 10 features of the Greek capital that make it the “place to meet”:

ACCESSIBILITY
Since its opening in 2001, the multi-awarded Athens International Airport (AIA) “Eleftherios Venizelos”, is one of the fastest-growing airports globally. Every year, the airport enriches its network with new carriers and destinations. As a result, today AIA is connected to all major cities around the world at competitive prices.

MEETING FACILITIES
A fully diverse collection of meeting venues ensures you will find the perfect space tailored to your needs and preferences, from modern creations to classic jewels. There are currently 40 Conference – Exhibition Centers and 89 Hotels with meeting facilities, offering the latest technology and exceptional services.

ACCOMMODATION
Athens, as well as the greater Athens region, offer a total of 29,050 rooms in 493 hotels spanning across various categories. A defining occasion was the Athens 2004 Olympic Games, which led to large renovation projects for the majority of the accommodation infrastructure. This upgrade is still ongoing for the constant improvement of services and facilities provided. A study commissioned by the Athens Development & Destination Management Agency on Athens’ Tourist Sector in the Pre and the Post Olympic Games eras, shows that the average length of a foreign tourist’s stay in a hotel in Athens is at 2.3 days, setting the Greek capital ahead of other major European capital cities.
PROFESSIONALISM
In recent years, Athens has been firmly established as the top meeting destination in Greece and has climbed to the top 25 most popular meeting destinations worldwide. The rise can, to a great extent, be attributed to the city's highly qualified professionals in various fields of the tourism industry and in particular, the meetings industry.

TRANSPORTATION
The state of the art transportation network, including Metro, Bus, Tram, Train, Trolleybus and expansive highways, allows for an easy and quick transportation at a very low cost.

ACTIVITIES
Boasting a history of 2,500 years, the city of Athens is a unique occasion where significant monuments live within a modern city. Coupled with world-class museums and a vibrant contemporary cultural life, Athens has it all. Even more, when you also take into account the city's lively nightlife- numerous bars and clubs for every preference- and the world-famous Mediterranean cuisine, you get an idea of the variety and diversity of segments within the tourism market that the city can cater for.

PRE / POST MEETING ACTIVITIES
It takes less than 30 minutes to get from the vibrant Athenian city-center to either the beach or the mountains. Athens is probably the single European capital where this is possible. Add 1 and a half hour to that, and you can visit places of both archaeological/ historical interest and exceptional natural surroundings, such as Sounio, Naupliio or Delphi. For those looking to unwind over a daily tour, Hydra, Spetses, Aegina and Poros- four small and picturesque islands of the Saronic Gulf- could be ideal due to the regular daily service from the port of Piraeus. What appears to be a new trend, in terms of pre and post international conference events, is the excursion to one of the most well-known and highly acclaimed Greek islands such as Santorini, Crete, Mykonos and so on. For mountain and ski-enthusiasts, you are only a 2-hour-drive away from the Parnassos and Kalavryta ski resorts.

CULTURAL LIFE & ENTERTAINMENT
Athens is the city of ideas. Some of humanity’s most exciting ideas were born here. In terms of culture, Athens is a unique case across the globe. It is probably the only place in the world where you can discover a city of more than 2,500 years old within a contemporary metropolis. Its exceptional past is coupled with a dynamic contemporary culture, full of highly acclaimed events all year round. To make things even better, Athens offers a lively nightlife with a wide variety of bars, clubs and restaurants. And let’s not forget that Athens is the city of olive trees, wine, honey and various herbs such as oregano, basil and thyme – the perfect opportunity to enjoy the one-of-a-kind, distinguished Mediterranean cuisine.

CLIMATE
Athens is known all over the world for its mild climate: its sunny blue sky, year-round warm temperature, pleasant breeze and lack of humidity. As a result, temperatures can climb above 22 degrees Celsius, starting from April up until the end of October. Luckily, the winter can also be characterized as mild, with temperatures ranging from 7 to 15 degrees Celsius and blue skies, since rainfall in Athens is minimal. In addition, the average daylight lasts for about 8-9 hours.

VALUE
The city’s geographical position and its proximity to areas such as the Balkans, the Mediterranean and the Middle East provide easy, and in many cases, very affordable access for delegates coming from economically developing countries. Furthermore, Athens offers a combination of high-quality services and facilities at rather competitive prices.
TRANSPORTATION

ATHENS INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

One of Athens’ highlights is the Athens International Airport (AIA) “Eleftherios Venizelos”. Ever since it opened its “gates” back in 2001, AIA has seen an annual growth of 7% and is on the list of the fastest growing airports in the world. Year by year, new carriers and destinations are added to its network.

Currently AIA has direct connections to about 65 international destinations, including all major cities around the world. Customer satisfaction is AIA’s top priority, providing high security standards and excellent services to all users.

The airport is located 33 km southeast of Athens and is easily accessible via a six-lane motorway (the Athens City Ring Road). Access to Athens and the Port of Piraeus is provided by express airport bus connections on a 24-hour basis, while a direct Metro line connects the airport to the city centre (Syntagma square) in just 40 minutes.

TRANSPORT FOR ATHENS

The Urban Transport Organization (OASA in short), is responsible for delivering and operating a well-organized and cost-effective public transport network, which facilitates the life of the citizens and visitors of Athens.

Metro

Three lines serve 61 stations and connect tram, bus routes and suburban rail at hub stations. More info at www.tfa.gov.gr

Buses and trolleybuses

There are 265 bus and 20 trolleybus lines that connect the Athens and Piraeus city centers with the entire metropolitan region. Airport buses run on a 24-hour basis. More info at www.tfa.gov.gr

Tram

Environmentally friendly, overlooking the Saronic Gulf, the tram line connects the center of Athens with the coastal suburbs in the southeast and Piraeus (the Port city) in the southwest. More info at www.tfa.gov.gr

Hellenic Railways Organization (OSE)

For domestic and international departures from Athens with connections to major railways.

Main station: Larissa station, serves northern Greece and international routes. More info at: www.ose.gr
Proastiakos/Suburban Railway
The high-speed suburban railway line both connects the airport with the city centre and serves the suburbs of Athens.

Intercity Bus Company of Association of Bus Operators (KTEL)
The Greek bus companies—widely known as “KTEL”—serve destinations outside Athens, with a dense network spanning throughout Greece.

Taxi
Greek taxis offer an alternative to mass transit. All licensed taxis are equipped with meters (the fare is charged per km and per hour) and display a card detailing the latest valid tariffs and surcharges.

Car Rentals
There are numerous reliable car rental agencies in Athens. Major and local agencies can operate only if licensed by the Greek National Tourist Organization (G.N.T.O.) and require a valid national driving license. Before renting, make sure the vehicle has adequate insurance cover (against accident, theft, fire, etc).

Driver’s Licenses
EU citizens can use their own. Other nationals should have an International Drivers License in addition to their valid driver’s license.

Sea Transport/Ports
Athens has three ports that operate daily routes to the islands. The main port, Pireaus, provides a year-round service to international destinations as well as islands of the Argo-Saronic Gulf, Dodecanese, Ionian Sea, and the Cyclades. The 2nd largest port, at Rafina, is located approximately 45 minutes from the city centre, whereas the Lavrio port is close to 1 hour away from the centre, connecting to Kea, Kithnos, Syros, Tinos, Andros, los, Sikinos, Folegandros, Milos, Paros, Naxos, Limnos, Agios Efstratios and Kavala. LANDMARKS

The establishment of Athens as a city dates back to mythological times. The city’s history is still evident throughout Athens in the form of many Ancient, Roman, Byzantine and modern monuments. Today’s capital integrates the ancient and medieval history into the contemporary era. Monuments can be found all around the city center, side by side with contemporary constructions such as buildings, roads and train stations.

ACROPOLIS

The Parthenon, a global symbol of Greece, has been standing on the “sacred rock” of Athens, the Acropolis, for thousands of years. The Parthenon along with all the other monuments of the Acropolis, are unique pieces of art, reflecting the Classical period and the Golden Age of ancient Athens during the 5th and 4th centuries B.C.

THE ACROPOLIS MUSEUM

Designed by Bernard Tschumi in collaboration with Michalis Photiadis, the sparkling new museum, has already become the city’s top attraction since its opening in June 2009 and is expected to become one of the most visited and “must see” museums worldwide. The museum, which exhibits approximately 4,000 artefacts, allows the sculptures to be viewed in natural light through special glass installations along with climate-control measures that protect them from sunlight. The most impressive part of the museum is its top floor, where visitors are able to view the frieze as well as the Parthenon itself outside the windows.
ODEON OF HERODES ATTICUS
At the footsteps of the Acropolis, the Odeon was built in 161 A.D. under Tiberius Claudius Atticus Herodes. Ever since and through the ages, audiences have had the chance to enjoy world-class concerts, plays and ballets within its surroundings. The natural setting of Herodeion, with its marvelous arcades, the Parthenon as a backdrop and the moon up in the sky will certainly fascinate you.

ANCIENT AGORA
The Ancient Agora, which means “market” in modern Greek, is located at the footsteps of the Acropolis and in ancient times, served as the commercial as well as political, cultural and religious centre of the city.

PLATO’S ACADEMY
Academy was a suburb of Athens, named after the hero Academos or Ecademos. The site was continuously inhabited from the prehistoric period until the 6th century A.D. During the 6th century B.C., one of the three famous Gymnasiums of Athens was founded here. In 387 B.C., Plato founded his philosophical school, which became very famous due to the Neoplatonists, and remained in use until 526 A.D., when it was finally closed down by emperor Justinian.

NATIONAL ARCHAEOLOGICAL MUSEUM OF ATHENS
The visit to National Archaeological Museum is a must. One of the richest collections of ancient Greek art in the world, the exhibits represent all the cultures that flourished in Greece, from prehistoric times to the period of Turkish occupation. Frescoes from prehistoric Thera and sculptures from the classical period, such as the bronze statue of Poseidon, are some of the museum’s highlights.

BYZANTINE MUSEUM
The museum hosts over 25,000 artifacts divided into collections that date from the 3rd to the 20th century A.D.

MUSEUM OF CYCLADIC ART
An extensive and unique private collection of prehistoric art from the Cycladic islands, as well as ancient Greek and Byzantine art.

NATIONAL GALLERY OF ATHENS
Features some of Greece’s and Europe’s finest paintings and works of art from the 19th and 20th centuries.

BENAKI MUSEUM
The space hosts 30,000 items illustrating the spirit of the Greek world through a spectacular historical panorama, covering several time-periods from the Prehistoric, Ancient and Roman eras to the Byzantine and the contemporary Hellenic period.
STAVROS NIARCHOS FOUNDATION CULTURAL CENTER (SNFCC)

The new SNFCC is Greece’s largest cultural, educational and recreational urban complex, and globally, one of the most sustainable building complexes of its size. It promises to move its citizenry forward into the 21st century, through education, sustainability and culture. The Center includes new facilities for the National Library of Greece with a significant book collection, and for the Greek National Opera— one of the most modern opera houses in the world. Surrounding the buildings is the Stavros Niarchos Park, replete with Mediterranean planting, waterways, a Great Lawn for festivals and concerts, bike paths and children’s playgrounds.

THE FIRST CEMETERY OF ATHENS

It is the official cemetery of the City of Athens and the first one to be built. It opened in 1837 and soon became the main Athenian cemetery, where a number of famous Greek and foreign personalities have been interred. The cemetery is located behind the Temple of Olympian Zeus and the Panathenaic Stadium in central Athens. The cemetery includes the tomb of Heinrich Schliemann, designed by Ernst Ziller, and a sculpture named I Koimomeni (the Sleeping Girl), by the sculptor Yannoulis Chalepas. The cemetery is under the Municipality of Athens and it is declared a historical monument.

PANATHENAIC STADIUM

Originally built in the 4th century B.C. for the athletic competitions of the Great Panathinaia (ancient Greek festivities), the “Kallimarmaron” Stadium (meaning “beautiful marble”) was the venue of the first modern Olympic Games, in 1896.
EATING OUT IN ATHENS

During the last decade, the Athenian cuisine has experienced a gourmet revolution. The traditional and world-renowned moussaka and souvlaki image has given way to a cornucopia of fine dining options. And the Athenian landscape of 19th century neoclassical buildings, ancient sites, artsy industrial and Mediterranean coastal milieus have created a canvas for alluring interiors and exteriors. Now, rooftop bar-restaurants in Athens can compete with some of the most distinguished ones in the world. But can the latter ones claim a view of the one and only Acropolis?

Top chefs and successful restaurateurs from food-Mecas around the globe have entered the Athenian culinary-scene to redefine it into a strong player, able to stand amongst many European metropolises. As a result, there are hundreds of excellent restaurants with chefs, menus and waiting staff that will impress even the well-traveled gourmand. Culinary aficionados are encouraged to amuse their palates in the myriad of sophisticated gourmet restaurants in Athens that boast flavors and designs inspired by a variety of cultures. Many can be found in Psirri, Kolonaki, Mets, Pagrati, Gazi, Koukaki and in most of the leading hotels. Every type of fine cuisine can be found and enjoyed in Athens: from Italian, French, American, and fusion to nouvelle, East-Asian, Middle-Eastern and of course Greek. It is worth noting that in Athens, fine dining also includes many enticing bar-restaurants, with live and/or DJ-based music, that take on a more “club feel” as the night progresses.
ATHENS NIGHTLIFE

Athens is famous for its vibrant nightlife. The Athenians like to party and will do so almost every night of the week. The choices are plenty and they appeal to all preferences and lifestyles. In general, things get started pretty late; after midnight for bars and clubs and after 10 pm for dinner at the city’s taverns, restaurants and bar-restaurants. In Greece, life is for living and leaving your worries behind. The result is a warm-hearted, energetic city with bars and restaurants to match.

SPORTS AND RECREATION

The birthplace of the Olympic Games has a tradition in athletics. The great outdoors is what recreational sporting in Athens is all about - yachting, sailing, scuba diving, windsurfing, beach volleyball, trekking and skiing. Athens is more than just the Acropolis. Undoubtedly, this city with its vibrant urban landscape boasts some of the best beaches and seaside destinations in the world. Even more, it is the only European Capital that is surrounded by 15 Blue Flag beaches. Of course, the gorgeous summer weather is ideal for water-sport enthusiasts, with crystal clear waters just minutes away from the Athenian center. But the fall and winter also have their sporting charms such as trekking and hiking on mountain trails, horseback riding, mountain-biking and skiing. Regimented health buffs are also accommodated by state-of-the art fitness centers in many leading hotels and throughout Athens in Kolonaki and around Syntagma Square.
DAY TRIPS

One of the greatest things about taking a trip to Athens is its proximity to the beautiful white-washed Greek islands, enchanting villages and ancient, historical cities. Even if you are in Athens for just a few days, we recommend that you spend a day or two at one of the following destinations. Each place has distinctive characteristics, archaeological treasures, unique culture and bright colors. Greeks, known for their ‘filoxenia’ that is their warm guest-welcoming and hospitality, will greet you with a smile and invite you to try the local specialties.

The islands of the coast of the Saronic Gulf are ideal one-day getaways. Agistri, Aegina, Hydra, Poros and Spetses are popular destinations for the Athenians, indicating their special standing amongst Greece’s many islands. Cruises that tour the islands in one day are available, as are easy connections from one to another, should you prefer to explore them at your leisure.

Take a half-day to visit Delphi, “the center of the World” as it has been considered to be in the ancient times. This enchanting area is famous for its archaeological sites, such as the ancient Oracle of Delphi and the Temple of Apollo, where the leaders of the ancient world sought spiritual guidance. The newly-built Archaeological Museum of Ancient Delphi is exquisite and houses important findings from the area.

Flisvos Marina is Greece’s first world-class marina, catering to the needs of a large number of mega yachts, offering both yacht owners and visitors numerous dining, shopping and recreational opportunities-all within a natural environment overlooking the blue Mediterranean Sea.
SHOPPING IN ATHENS

A showcase for its traditional and modern culture and lifestyle, shopping in Athens can be a fascinating and satisfying experience for everyone. Athens is a paradise for shopping lovers and will satisfy even the most discerning of shoppers. Amidst famous international brands and traditional Greek art and folklore shops, you will find hundreds of chic boutiques and special shops with great fashion gems for every taste and budget. The “new kids on the block” are the shiny department stores that have won the hearts of locals and visitors alike. Whichever your preference, the close proximity of each shopping district means that during your weekend in Athens, you can combine a stroll on a cobblestone street amongst the locals buying fresh products at traditional markets and bazaars, with browsing elegant displays of haute couture, prêt a porter clothing, shoes and accessories by talented Greek and foreign designers that will impress you. A day of shopping in Athens is a delightful way to immerse yourself in the Greek culture. Make sure to stop by one of the many wonderful year-round outdoor cafes and restaurants to complete your “shopping in Athens” experience.

RURAL ATHENS -
THE LAND OF WINE

Athens is the perfect, yet mostly unknown, destination ready to be explored by every wine tourism enthusiast. Attica, the area spanning around Athens, is a fertile land, rich with mountains, wildlife, forests, rivers, amazing vineyards and state-of-the-art wineries with quality viticulture and skilled oenologists.

The Napa of Europe, as it is considered to be, Attica carries a rich heritage of several thousand years of wine-making history. This makes the area ideal for travelers who wish to experience wine tourism and taste some of the finest wines in the Mediterranean.

The 6,500 year old tradition of viticulture makes Attica one of the oldest wine-producing regions in the world. The area is blessed with high mountains, opulent soil and a friendly sun, all of which contribute in the great variety of quality wines with the authentic flavor that made ancient Greek wine what French wine is today.

The ancient Athenians created and developed a wine culture- the consumption of wine as a social event and the appreciation of it at a very sophisticated level- as they considered wine to be a gift from the gods. They worshipped Dionysus, the god of wine and festivity, who- according to ancient beliefs- introduced the cultivation and art of wine-drinking to the citizens of Athens. Illustrations on pottery and other artifacts, wine amphorae, and the extraordinary ceramic wine cups- whose shapes affected the taste of wine, according to the ancient Athenians- are some of the many pieces of evidence for Attica’s long relationship with wine.

Over the past 20 years, evolution in the wineries and cellars of Attica has been astounding, and viticulture and winemaking is now very different. There are more than 30 ultra-modern wineries around Athens with makers dedicated to the production of high-quality wines, while their locations create an interesting route for wine tourism. Most of today’s Greek wine makers have studied viticulture and oenology abroad and invested heavily in modern techniques. More native and foreign varieties of grape are being planted, leading to the production of exciting and captivating 21st century Greek wines that are being discovered and enjoyed by connoisseurs, as well as the rest of us, and are competing once more for a top place in the international market of exceptional fine wines.

Most of the wine estates offer wine tours, wine tasting and many related events that will make people aware of the wonderful wines and history of the Attica region. The guided tours, in English and sometimes in German and French, generally start in the vineyards, where the grapes are carefully and tenderly cultivated, and continue to the wineries where visitors are guided through the underground cellars as they learn about the process of wine. Last but not least, the tour concludes with a wine-testing session of the estate’s finest wines.
Athens: a city full of wealth, with a rich historical, cultural and vibrant personality. The capital of the country where hospitality was born is home to state-of-the-art infrastructure, amazing gastronomical experiences, a diverse entertainment scene and spots of natural beauty. Making it rather explicit that, the product of Athens is purely touristic and imperative to be developed to its full potential. This is what drives the Athens Development and Destination Management Agency (ADDMA), forging ahead and levering our city’s past and present to yield a better future.

The vision of ADDMA is brought to life through the city’s official Destination Management Organization, the Athens Convention & Visitors Bureau (ACVB). ACVB’s main function is putting into practice the entire range of ADDMA’s planned actions for the tourism sector. It is with determination that it is promoting and establishing the Greek capital as a top world destination for meetings and conventions.

The development of convention tourism as well as the economical growth of the city are top targets for the ACVB which are approached in various ways, from branding and executing a specific communication and PR strategy, to planning and developing strategies for tourist season extension, average length of stay increase and seasonality smoothing, and product upgrade and enrichment. To the aforementioned goals, more come to be added, such as the improvement of the tourist experience- mainly through carrying out visitor information and management services. Along comes the tourism development of the city and its connection with the international travel industry- through the development of cooperation networks between the private and public sectors.

OUR OBJECTIVES ARE:

- to attract and generate events.
- to ensure that choosing Athens for staging meetings and incentives is a sound investment and an assurance for the success of any event.
- to serve as a link between planners and the meeting industry in Athens.
- to promote the city as a business-events destination.

OUR SERVICES INCLUDE:

- providing meeting planners with information and advice concerning conference facilities.
- offering to all interested parties advice, support, site inspections and other services, which are essential for the successful organization of a conference or a meeting.
- providing official support to bid proposals.
- providing information on facilities, venues, services in Athens, as well as web services dedicated to the meetings sector through a functional website.
- providing promotional material on Athens.
- working closely with all public and private institutions to ensure that business visitors are offered a memorable experience in our city.

March 28th, 2001 marked the onset of a new era for air transport in Greece, with the opening of the Athens International Airport “Eleftherios Venizelos”, which contributed to the transformation of the capital with one of the most modern, functional and safest airport in the world. Athens International Airport S.A. (AIA) was established in 1996 as a Public-Private Partnership with a 30-year B.O.O.T (Build - Own - Operate - Transfer) concession to build and operate the airport and has undertaken successfully a series of very important roles, i.e. manager of the airport, employer and responsible corporate citizen. AIA is a privately managed company, with the Greek State holding 55% of shares, while the private shareholders collectively hold 45%. Thanks to its favourable geographical location at the cross-roads of three continents, state-of-the art infrastructure and top-notch service, the Athens International Airport has earned numerous international distinctions and awards, as well as the trust of passengers. Today, it constitutes one of the major gateways to South-Eastern Europe and forms a unique entrepreneurial entity of economic and social development in the Attica basin. Over 15,000 people are employed as part of the airport community which consists of more than 500 companies closely connected to the Airport Company and contributes to its smooth operations while the Athens Airport City is one of the biggest employment engines in Greece, contributing to the national and local economy by 2.63% of the GDP, as proven by the updated study of the Athens University of Economics and Business relevant study (2012 data).

Enhancing Athens connectivity through the attraction of new services and the strengthening and increase of the existing ones is an ongoing process for Athens International Airport, aiming at increasing the volume of passengers visiting the airport and expanding the network of destinations. During 2017, the airport is connected to 34 Domestic and 109 international destinations, served by 57 scheduled airlines, out of which 20 Low Cost Carriers (serving 49 cities and 57 airports). In 2016, Athens airport recorded an all-time high performance, with 20.02 million passengers, surpassing previous year traffic by 1.9 million (+10.7%).

Overall, with 31 new routes and over 258 additional weekly flights, Athens airport is characterized by the dynamic expansion of the international route network of the airport’s home-based carriers, the successful performance of Greek and foreign visiting carriers coupled with the introduction of additional frequencies and new routes, the increase of low cost carriers operating in Athens airport and last but not least, spectacular long - haul developments.

To attract new services, introduce additional frequencies or support existing operations, Athens airport offers integrated marketing packages to airlines and conducts:

- thorough & extensive surveys and market analyses and compiles
- extremely detailed and strong business cases for the airlines presented
- during meetings and roadshows at the airlines’ head office and supported by
- special tools & projects, depending on the airline’s strategy and business model of operations in the Athens market.

AIA is far more than just a gateway to South-Eastern Europe; aiming at continuous growth, the Athens airport develops its extensive real estate assets, conducts large-scale commercial activities and exports the company’s pioneering know-how in the IT sector. Indeed, approximately 40% of the company’s turnover and a significant share of its profits come from non-aeronautical activities.

Additionally, in the environmental field, forming a milestone development, AIA’s RMWp new Photovoltaic Park commenced operations in mid-July 2011, being, at the time of start of operations, the second largest in Greece and the largest in an airport worldwide. Distinguished as one of the best airports in the world in the first years of operation, Athens International Airport offers a wide range of services and facilities, making each moment at the airport a pleasant experience for the travellers, their meeters and greeters, and the airport’s visitors. Athens International Airport maintains one of the best airport terminals in Europe, equipped with state-of-the-art systems, featuring a most user-friendly orientation, comfortable waiting areas and adhering to the highest cleanliness standards. Furthermore, according to the surveys conducted at the airport, our passengers value the airport’s warm and welcoming atmosphere, the courtesy of staff, as well as the attractive offer of over 130 quality shops and restaurants in its Airport Shopping Centre as well as a very attractive Retail Park within the Airport compound.

Athens International Airport’s competitive advantages:

- Unrestricted access to 24-hour operations from two independent runways
- State-of-the-art technology and equipment
- Highest standards in safety and security, offering 100% hold baggage screening
- Efficient transfers offering a seamless and pleasant experience

Transport for Athens : The Athens Transport System

The Athens Public Transport system is the largest public transport system in Greece and ranked among the best in Europe. It is efficient and provides reliable transportation services to citizens and visitors in the wider Athens metropolitan area.

The Athens Public Transport System consists of a metro, a tram and an extensive bus and trolleybus network, which provides easy access to all major points of interest (e.g. Acropolis, Plaka, Museums, etc.), many hotels and major convention centers.

The Athens metro is the backbone of the Athens Transport System. It has 3 lines and provides direct connection of the City Center to the city’s entry points like the Airport of Athens, the Port of Piraeus and the Larissis Railway Station. The Athens metro is extended from north (Kifisia) to south (Port of Piraeus) and east to west, connecting the majority of the urban suburbs.

Metro Line 1, better known as “ILEKTRIKOS”, initially began as steam powered and later became electric powered. It has been connecting Athens with Piraeus since 1869 while the new metro lines (lines 2 & 3) are considered among the gems of modern Athens.

The construction of the two new lines (2 & 3) made headlines when ancient artefacts were found underground and halted its progress. Many of these ancient artefacts are presented in special exhibits incorporated into the design of the stations of metro line 2 and 3.

The Athens metro stations are very impressive and are included among the most beautiful stations in Europe, with several of them being small museums by presenting original artifacts or replicas of archeological treasures, which were found during excavations.

The Athens bus and trolleybus network is very extensive and allows the travelers to reach the most distant points in the metro area. The environmental friendly bus fleet amounts a total of more than 2000 vehicles and has one of the largest CNG and trolley fleet in Europe, consisting of 614 CNG buses and 366 electric trolleys respectively. All vehicles of the bus fleet are modern, air-conditioned and accessible to people with reduced mobility.

Furthermore, EXPRESS buses connect the Athens International Airport with the city center (Syntagma sq.), the Piraeus Port and the Intercity Bus Terminal (KTEL Kifisos) on a 24-hour basis.

The Athens tram is one of the big projects that have been built for the Athens 2004 Olympic Games. It connects the southern suburbs with the city center, while also provides a scenic ride and transport service along the coastal line.

The Athens Transport System offers a wide variety of tickets for citizens, visitors and tourists. Daily tickets, 3-day tourist tickets and 5-day tickets offer unlimited travel, at a low price, with all transport means, within the city, while the 3-day tourist ticket also includes a roundtrip route to the airport.

Special group tickets for use by convention attendees can also be provided, after a special fare settlement with the Conference/Congress Organizing Committee.

NEW Hotel is the latest member of the Yes! Hotels Group, the first hotel venture by award winning Brazilian designers Humberto and Fernando Campana featuring striking interiors, quirky bespoke furniture and handmade fixtures throughout. Offering an entirely NEW approach this 79-room and suites establishment, is located in the center of Athens, off Constitution Square, near Plaka, the Acropolis and metro station. In all bedrooms, there is artwork of Greek folklore themes, whilst floors and bathrooms are from solid bamboo and marble. Junior Suites and public areas host authentic contemporary art collection, making guests feel that they live and breathe in a major art installation.

Located on the ground floor of the NEW hotel; NEW Taste all day restaurant is a culinary haven, with its welcoming ambience, fabulous seating, and simply excellent food. In an environment with surprising visual facilities, NEW Taste is an original restaurant concept featuring a Mediterranean menu, based on the continuous transformation of the food service areas. Art Lounge, in the 7th floor of NEW Hotel; One of the most beautiful city rooftops, a unique venue that combines art with fine cuisine. The outstanding art library, which hosts more than 2,000 art titles, together with the impressive panoramic view to Acropolis and Lycabettus, they all merge in to the ideal set-up for those who seek an urban chic perspective.

The meeting rooms offer natural day light providing up-to-date audio/visual equipment. Business corner provides all necessary equipment while the NEW Sense wellness spot/gym, offers a feeling of well-being in body and spirit.

WYNDHAM GRAND
Athens
AthensWas is the hotel of choice for travelers visiting Athens for business or pleasure. It was created to delight visitors who want to experience Athens’ tranquil, attractive side, in what has been the heart of the city since ancient times. It is a Design Hotel™ and designed in line with the core principles of classical modernism. The aesthetic of its rooms and communal spaces is defined by clean, uncluttered lines and natural materials. The end result is warm spaces in which the visitor feels utterly at home from the moment they walk through the door—the best possible recipe for a calm and restful stay.

At the hotel’s rooftop, gazing at the Acropolis rock from the historical area of Plaka on Dionysiou Areopagitou Street, Chef Thodoris Papanikolaou takes care of the “Sense Fine Dining Restaurant”. The recipes he presents reflect his culinary philosophy: the today’s modern look of a Greek cuisine that does not diverge from its roots and memories.

AthensWas hotel is the second luxury hotel of ANEMI HOTELS Group. The company owns another property on the island of Folegandros, Anemi hotel.

The Eugenides Foundation is an independent, private, non profit foundation with a mission to enhance scientific, technological and technical education of the Greek youth and to promote science and technology to the general public. It was established in 1956, in accordance with the provisions of the will left by our national benefactor Eugene Eugenides. Sixty years after the Eugenides Foundation was established, this new vision has become a reality.

In a learning environment built to the highest specifications, the Eugenides Foundation welcomes the future through a number of educational and recreational activities with a view to promoting and disseminating science and technology to the Greek people. Nowadays, the Eugenides Foundation is an internationally acknowledged technological and educational multi-center.

The function of the fully renovated Eugenides Foundation is based on the following main activities:

- The New Digital Planetarium, one of the largest and best equipped digital planetaria in the world, presenting digital shows and largeformat films.
- New publishing activities in the fields of maritime, vocational andtechnical education.
- A library, with multimedia applications and distance learning technology.
- Expanded educational activities and collaborations.
- A modern convention centre.
- An Exhibition of Science and Technology.
- A new technology laboratory

Conference Facilities

With the complete renovation of its facilities, over the past ten years the Eugenides Foundation has established a dynamic presence among Greek and international providers of high-quality convention services. Every year dozens of Greek and international conferences and meetings are held in the Foundation’s facilities, which welcome some of the most prominent figures of the world’s cultural, intellectual, and scientific communities. From 2003 until today, Eugenides Foundation has hosted:

- 1080 Greek and international conferences and events
- 750,000 participants and visitors

The fully equipped facilities, complemented by a complete range of conference services, ensure successful staging of professional conferences, meetings, and events to the most demanding standards. In a special environment distinguished by the elegance and simplicity of its architectural style, the extensive experience of the Eugenides Foundation in conference hosting services, but also its superbly trained staff, guarantee the success and prestige of every event, in an environment of authentic hospitality.

The areas of the Eugenides Foundation are accessible and friendly to people with physical disabilities.

The New Digital Planetarium

The New Digital Planetarium of the Eugenides Foundation is one of the largest and best digital Planetariums in the world.

Its main mission is to communicate the achievements in science and technology to the wider public, to inspire its visitors by demonstrating the nature of scientific inquiry and to cultivate their sense of curiosity and wonder about the natural world.

Producing two new Planetarium shows every year and combining them with a children’s show and a spectacular large format film, the New Digital Planetarium program offers a variety of options to its audience, both educational and entertaining.

It is always a unique experience to watch a show under the immersive 25 m diameter dome with the latest state of the art audiovisual technology which is continuously upgraded.
The revamped Amphitheatre of the “ATHINA 9.84” Municipal Radio Station is situated on the ground floor of the radio station in Technopolis, in Gazi.

Renovated over the last year it has been revamped and transformed into an elegant and hospitable “multi - space”, in an easily accessible area with particular cultural and social interest.

The best quality materials were used with comfort, aesthetics, quality, and technology in mind to revamp the 300 capacity venue, as well as the foyer with its modern, frugal design.

The aim was to create a functional venue utilizing state of the art means to facilitate all sorts of activities.

This special venue has already hosted:

- Dance performances
- Theatre productions
- Children’s theatre and musical performances
- Musical soirees
- Art exhibitions
- Book presentations
- Awards ceremonies

A uniquely designed building with contemporary aesthetics, HELEXPO MAROUSSI provides its visitors with flexibility and comfort. It is the first Exhibition Centre in Attica designed for exhibition and conference use and its opening laid new foundations in the market for services, organization, facilities, etc.

It can host exhibitions, conferences, corporate events, television shoots, etc. and can host more than one event at a time.

It first opened its gates in March 2000. It functioned as the Main Press Centre of the 2004 Olympics and it has hosted a number of Exhibitions, Conferences and other events since 2005.

With the interchanges of Kifissias Avenue and Attiki Odos Motorway, HELEXPO MAROUSSI lies:
- 20 min. from Syntagma Square
- 5 min. from the National Motorway (PATHE)
- 20 min. from ‘Eleftherios Venizelos’ International Airport

CULTURAL CENTERS & SOCIAL EVENTS VENUES
“Aegli Zappiou - The Athenian Landmark for your corporate or social event”

Aegli’s location could not be more ideal for the visitor of Athens. Located in the heart of the city of Athens, in Zappion Gardens and next to Zappion Megaron (the first building designed to serve the needs of the Olympic Games), Aegli Zappiou multiplex is the ideal place to escape the city’s noise.

The renewed facilities respect the place’s history and co-exist in harmony with the natural environment, offering contemporary design and professional technical support.

Aegli Zappiou multiplex includes the event halls Olympia, Proteas, Prive and also the all day café restaurant Aegli Café, the Mediterranean cuisine restaurant “Aegli Estiatorio”, Cine Aegli open air cinema and Aegli Garden. Aegli is facing Acropolis and Lycabettus Hill, is right next to Kallimarmaro Stadium while is adjacent to Syntagma square and the Greek parliament.

The infrastructure of quality and adequacy of facilities, the luxurious and flexible halls suitable for multiple uses, the full technical equipment that meets the most demanding quality standards by specialized partners, the easy access, the spacious parking area as well as the fine menu choices with fresh ingredients, all constitute guarantee for quality.

The Benaki Museum was founded by Antonis Benakis in 1930, and subsequently donated to the Greek state in 1931. It is the oldest museum in Greece operating as a Foundation under Private Law. Since 1973, it has been directed by a visionary and charismatic leader, Professor Angelos Delivorrias, and supported by a workforce of 185 employees. Currently, the Benaki Museum is the most active museum organization in Greece.

Situated in a set of 5 buildings open to the public, the Museum covers a broad section of the art spectrum, featuring 4 archival departments, an extensive library, over 500,000 objects of art, books, photographs, archives and rare documents. The Museum welcomes over 150,000 visitors per year and offers a wide range of educational and cultural activities for all ages. With extensive collections covering several cultural fields and a range of activities serving various social needs, the Benaki Museum assumes a unique place as a complex organization among the broader network of museum foundations in Greece.

Every year, the Benaki Museum organizes a program of exhibitions based on either individual artists or themes. It also organizes conferences, lectures, and activities on specific subjects arising from the work of the artists exhibited.

Mission

The main mission of the Benaki Museum is to inspire love for knowledge as well as to encourage people to reflect on world cultural heritage and human interaction across space and time. Following a policy of extroversion and democratization, the Museum provides open access to its collections and archives, thus promoting education, research and the exchange of knowledge. After years of intensive work, the Museum’s social impact, as well as its resiliency and self-sufficiency, have been firmly established.

Main Activities

The Museum is committed to nurturing and diffusing emerging knowledge through its varied and rare collections, supported by a remarkable range of cultural activities that correspond to its particular interests. These include educational programs, exhibitions, research and publications, lectures and conferences. The main themes of the Museum’s public activities embrace Archaeology, Byzantine and Post-Byzantine Culture, Neo-Hellenic Art and Material Culture, European Art, Islamic Art, World Cultures, Design, Architecture, Photography, Music, Theatre, History and Literature.

Pireos Street Cultural Centre

The multi-dynamic Pireos Street Cultural Centre is an industrial building of the 1960’s transformed into a modern museum space, which includes a central atrium, a 400-seat amphitheatre, designed to accommodate multiple events and an exhibition-halls span of 3,000 m². The Cultural Centre is equipped with the latest technological specifications, in order to serve simultaneously the most complex organizational needs, when hosting cultural events and exhibitions that relate to art, music, dance, theatre, film and various conferences. Moreover it houses the Neo-Hellenic Architecture Archives and Performing Arts, and in 2014 the Photographic Archives.

Benaki Museum

In 2000, the main building re-opened, after years of renovation. The centerpiece of the Benaki Museum, it aims to present the historical and cultural development of Hellenism within its geographical and evolutionary context, from prehistory to the present. The priceless collections housed in this building depict masterpieces from the Neolithic Age, the Antiquity and the Roman Era to the Byzantine Age, and from the fall of Constantinople, the period of Frankish rule and the Ottoman Occupation, to the outbreak of the Greek War of Independence in 1821. The collections also include works of art from the time of the formation of the Modern Greek State until the Asia Minor Catastrophe in 1922. The breadth and variety of such collections defines the Benaki Museum and sets it apart, not as another historical museum, an art museum or a museum of decorative arts, but as the museum of Greek civilization, in all its manifestations.

Benaki Museum - Museum of Islamic Art

The Museum of Islamic Art is situated in a Neo-Classical building complex in the Kerameikos neighborhood. It is the only museum of its kind in Greece, featuring a unique collection of world-renowned artefacts, one of the top ten collections worldwide. The evolution of Islamic civilisation from the first appearance of Islam up to the Ottoman period and the corresponding development of Islamic art up to the 19th century are demonstrated by more than 8,000 works of art, including ceramics, gold, metalwork, textiles and glass, smaller groupings of bone objects, inscribed funerary steles and weaponry, as well as the marble-faced interior of a reception room from a 17th-century Cairo mansion. During the preservation works of the building, a section of the ancient city wall of Athens was uncovered at the basement level; it is now accessible to visitors.

Delta House

The Delta House is a characteristic example of the mature Neo-Classical style of the early 20th c., demonstrating a number of eclectic features borrowed from medieval architecture, including the typically Athenian feature of a tower staircase. Since 1994, the Historical Archives are accommodated in the Delta House.
A unique place for unforgettable events!

Hellenic Motor Museum offers high-tech alternative premises for hosting every type of corporate or social event. Each of three floors, has been designed in order to be transformed into an event hall and with the appropriate adjustments, to serve either corporate, scientific or sport events, or even wedding receptions, christenings’ gatherings or children’s parties.

Hellenic Motor Museum is situated in the heart of Athens.

The Museum covers 5,000 m² in 3 whole floors, dedicated to technology and the 4 wheels evolution, a history that covers almost a century, from an 1895 fire engine from Hungary to a Ferrari Testarossa 1986.

The museum, a highly-coveted private collection numbers currently more than 300 historic vehicles.

The Vorres Museum is a cultural foundation that was established in 1983, with the purpose of promoting Greek art and culture, through a broad spectrum of activities.

The museum sprawls over six acres and is divided into two main sections: the museum of contemporary Greek art and the folk art museum, both of which house collections that cover at least 2500 years of Greek history.

In the contemporary part, paintings, installations and sculptures created exclusively by Greek artists are exhibited and the folk art section houses antiquities, icons, ceramics, popular artifacts and objects used in daily Greek life centuries ago.

Over the years, the Vorres Museum has proved to be not only a beloved off the beaten track tourist attraction, but a unique venue for the MICE industry as well.

The Museum is situated near the airport, in Painia, a suburb of Athens.

The purpose of Zappeion Exhibition Hall was to serve as an exhibition space for Greek agricultural and manufacture products, as well as a space to introduce new technologies to the Greek public. It also served as a venue for exhibitions of paintings and sculpture, musical performances and other cultural events while the gardens were designed in order to become gathering place for Athenians and visitors.

The Zappeion is also a vision that was conceived in 1856 by the benefactor Evanggelis Zappas and inaugurated in 1888 by his cousin Constantine Zappas. The Zappas firmly believed that the newly independent Greek nation needed to take its place among the nations of Europe. Athletics and the revival of the Ancient Olympic Games were also part of the vision.

The new Board of Directors has embarked on an extensive program of renovation of the Zappeion Exhibition Hall and its gardens.

Recently, the Zappeion Exhibition Hall became a member of Historic Conference Centres of Europe and we also plan to organize our own cultural exhibitions and musical performances. We truly believe that the Zappeion Exhibition Hall once again will emerge to take its rightful position as the foremost centre for conferences and exhibitions in the city of Athens.

THE ZAPPEION EXHIBITION HALL
(Historic Conference Centres of Europe)
The new Acropolis Museum is the new cultural destination for all visitors to Athens. For the first time in modern history one can admire the most famous works of classical antiquity in one setting with all the comforts of a 21st century museum building. The exhibits which include the sculptures of the Parthenon, the Caryatids of the Erechtheion and the Kore of the Archaic Period, some of which represent the key artistic expressions of a deep political change that transformed the ancient city of Athens during the 5th century BC, subsequently marking entire eras from antiquity to modernity.

From its opening in June 2009 until October 2012 more than 5 million local and foreign visitors have passed through the Museum’s doors. Having already placed the visitor at center stage, the Museum attempts to offer an increasing range of quality services using a variety of approaches.

The Acropolis Museum provides a restaurant on the second floor, with panoramic views of the Acropolis, an auditorium and a café on the ground floor with views to the archaeological excavation below, available for rent to public, private and non-profit organizations for events relevant to museum mission. The Museum auditorium (204 seats) and the temporary exhibition space on the Museum’s ground floor area are also available. The Museum is entirely wheelchair friendly.

In particular the Acropolis Museum hosts a wide variety of events, including conferences, corporate presentations, press conferences, seminars, dinners, launches, and book presentations. Each scheduled event can be combined with a private visit to the Museum exhibition galleries.

The non-profit, charitable, B. & M. Theocharakis Foundation for the Fine Arts and Music is located opposite the Greek Parliament, where the cultural, political and commercial heart of Athens beats. It is housed in a renovated listed building in eclectic style dating back to the ’20s in the corner of Vassilissis Sofias Avenue and Merlin Street.

Its mission is to engage people in an interdisciplinary dialogue with the visual arts and music, both within and beyond Greek borders, emphasizing the emergence and development of the modern from the 19th to the 21st century.

In order to achieve its objectives, the B. & M. Theocharakis Foundation organizes events and carries out activities, such as: temporary thematic exhibitions, chamber music concerts, educational programs, seminars, workshops and lectures.

- Exhibition Halls
The B. & M. Theocharakis Foundation provides all the amenities of a modern cultural center and its facilities combine full functionality with high aesthetics. The 500 m² exhibition halls are developed in 3 floors, in accordance with the highest museological standards, and can host small or large-scale art exhibitions.

- Auditorium
The B. & M. Theocharakis Foundation operates a multi-purpose, fully equipped Auditorium with a capacity of 170 persons. Designed to the highest technological standards, it boasts a cozy atmosphere and a discreet luxury, successfully hosting classical music concerts, lectures, seminars, film screenings and book presentations. Furthermore, it is established as an ideal venue for holding corporate events.

- Café Merlin
Café Merlin is located on the 1st floor of the B. & M. Theocharakis Foundation. It is designed with subtle and relaxed taste, blending modern and classic elements. It is the perfect spot to pleasantly prolong a visit to an exhibition or enhance the experience of a concert or a lecture. The quiet and bright space, with a view onto the National Garden, the creative dishes prepared with the best ingredients and the discreet and friendly service make Café Merlin the ideal place for a tasty and light lunch, a drink after work or just a coffee at any time of the day. Reservations: (+30)-210-3611731.

- Art Shop
The Art Shop of the B. & M. Theocharakis Foundation offers a wide range of unique art objects including: prints, posters, jewelleries, porcelains, accessories, as well as creations inspired by the Foundation’s permanent collection. Gifts and souvenirs from other museums, such as the Moma and the Metropolitan of New York, Kunsthistoriches in Vienna and Hermitage of Saint Petersburg can also be found. Moreover, the large selection of objets d’art and sculptures, as well as the luxury editions that accompany the temporary exhibitions that the Foundation hosts, are ideal as exclusive corporate gifts.

Opening hours
Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Saturday, Sunday: 10:00-18:00
Thursday, Friday: 10:00-20:00

Summer opening hours (July-August)
Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday: 10:00-18:00

The Museum of Cycladic Art opened its doors to the public in January 1986, and is now a living institution in the heart of Athens. With the aim of communicating with the general public, it organizes temporary exhibitions devoted to archaeology and contemporary art, educational programmes, creative activities for children and families, lectures, one-day conferences, seminars, music and other events. Its permanent collections are promoted by occasional reinstallations according to the latest museological approaches and academic publications. Today, in the galleries of the MCA the visitor can approach three major subjects: Cycladic Art (3200 - 2000 BC), Ancient Greek Art (2000 BC - 395 AD) and Ancient Cypriot Art (3900 BC - 6th century AD).

One of Athens most recognizable Museums, the Museum of Cycladic Art, is a gem to the capital. It offers 4 different spaces for hosting an array of events. Organize a unique event in a cultural venue. The spaces are ideal for hosting press conferences, lectures, corporate events, private dinners & lunches, cocktail receptions even galas. Events can also be combined with a private tour to one of the museum’s permanent collections or to the current temporary exhibition. Corporate gifts to accompany an event can be selected from the Cycladic Shop.

One of the most well-hidden secrets of Athens, the unique Railway Carriage Theater to Treno sto Rouf, is an innovative, boutique, railway cultural venue, inside vintage train wagons. Heralded by 19th century science fiction novelist, Jules Vernes, it was realized in 1997 by the actress and director Tatiana Ligari to host the only train-theater in the world.

The Railway Carriage Theater to Treno sto Rouf consists of ten refurbished antique cars, including an original wagon-restaurant from the 1926 Simplon Orient Express and a refurbished Breda type steam engine, which dates back to 1953, constituting evidence to modern Greek history and industrial heritage. All ten cars have been subsequently transformed, repaired and refurbished accordingly, with great sensitivity to originality and aesthetics, and are now home to a theatre stage, a music stage, a restaurant, a bar and foyer; dressing rooms and utility rooms. Our program mainly consists of artistic productions (theater, music, dance, visual arts, guided tours, educational programs, festivals, art projects, exhibitions, screenings, lectures etc.) equally paired with dining (be it romantic private parties, themed evenings or corporate events), while our bar and restaurant are open to all visiting guests. Every spring and summer there are tables set out on the station platform, where you can claim a spot in the cool breeze of the openair bar-restaurant “Apovathra”, among the blossoming oleanders and the subdued lighting from the train carriages, while enjoying coffee, refreshing cocktails, delicious Greek snacks, hip DJ sounds and cultural events. Drawing on our long experience in organizing events and in working with major artists from all sections of the world of arts, we can host and arrange any artistic, entertaining, educational, leisure or dining event and also offer our own integrated suggestions for foreign visitors, including guided tour, theatrical or music performance and dinner.

Running for 20 years, the Railway Carriage Theater to Treno sto Rouf has won over the hearts and minds of the public and received endless rave reviews in the media, thanks to the originality of the venue and the exceptional quality of the performances.

An ideal place to visit, if you seek something beyond the usual!

Case Study
Dear Event Makers team,
For two years we worked together on one of the most complicated programs in our corporate history – the 2008 Athens Gold program. By any standards this was a world class program and one that would be demanding for any agency. Over the time we worked together I have spent a great deal of time with all the team and even now I’m still amazed and impressed by their commitment and professionalism.

To give you some points of consideration for the program:

- 13 Hotels
- 2,500 guests rooms per night
- 4,700 guests from 60 different countries
- 14 core languages
- 5 conference days ranging in size from 150 to 3,700
- 2 hosted catering functions for 4,700 people
- 3 day cruises for 800 pax per day
- Coordination of transportation, customer service, catering, entertainment, logistics, government relations and team management.

Over the space of 2 years we are in contact on a daily basis and met at least once every two months. The program was challenging, overwhelming, and at times even frustrating. The team was tireless in always trying to find the best possible solution for every situation. Together we explored every possible venue, option, and angle in order to accommodate the group in the best possible way. We had subcontracting team from all over Europe working on the project and Event Makers –DMC team and I were working closely to coordinate this diverse volume of communication and coordinate the efforts of our various team. The program, in a word, was exhausting and demanded reserves of energy that made one feel that one was running a marathon. The goal was always in-site, the energy was there but in order to make something this big happen it takes the internal drive of a few key players to make it happen. The program was delivered on site impeccably. The program logistics were perfect and the command of the transportation, accommodations and customers service units was strong, professional and without question. The job was done, it was done well, and it was done exactly as contracted and more. The 2008 Athens program was rated as one of the best in the company’s history. I would agree having managed our global programs for the last six years I’m aware of the crucial role that the local suppliers play in the execution of our events. Events Makers did a superb job. I recommend Event Makers without any hesitation, with full support and I would welcome the chance to work with them again. I do not believe there is a better supplier in Greece. I now consider Event Makers DMC to be a valued supplier, colleague, and most importantly now – friend. You know that if Event Makers handles the project it will be managed at a world class level.

Kind Regards,
Peter Kropp / International Conference and Events Manager/

Case Study

Client: Cosmetics company
Program: Incentive trip in Athens
City: Athens
Type of event: A color run activity, nearby the Athenian Riviera in Vouliagmeni area.
Guest profile: Mostly women but also men 28-40 years old, joyful and vivid, seeking for a challenging experience.

SERVICE SCOPE

The event is part of their incentive trip in Athens, alongside the coastal part of Vouliagmeni area, on the Athenian Riviera. The participants should be at their best in order to enjoy a demanding activity of running more than 5 kilometers. Full in color, all of them challenged between each other and their personal physical limits.

CHALLENGE WE MET

The guests had to run in a Color Run Activity alongside the Vouliagmeni area by the seashore. They colorized themselves with different powder-colors and they participated in a challenging event with a lot of fun, color, music and energy for a route longer than 5 kilometers. The winning team, which finished the route first, took their prizes and along with their ex-competitors, they continued partying on the street in a colorful event surrounded by nature and music.

PW SOLUTION

In order for the event to take place, a whole distance of 5 kilometers had to be isolated from the public street of Vouliagmeni region. Municipal authorities and bureaucracy were the most difficult obstacles to be defeated. The authorities, and municipal police had to be aware in order to keep safety measures all along the run. Moreover, we had to supervise a private operation for cleaning the streets to their former condition.

Case Study
One of the largest events we have operated as a company was a double meeting for a well-known, global nutrition direct selling company. This was a multiethnic meeting with delegates from all parts of the world.

The meeting consisted of two groups operating on the same dates but different locations in Greece working in parallel to each other: one group of 800 guests for which we organized accommodation in Athens and a Cruise to the Greek islands (Mykonos / Rhodes / Santorini), and a second group of 400 guests who stayed at Lagonissi and set up a day trip to Mykonos.

The highlight of the event was that both groups had to meet on Mykonos for a great Gala dinner for 1200 people that was set up at one of the famous Mykonos beaches, Platys Yalos.

The challenges of running two events/groups at the same time were many, but were handled with careful preparation and creativity, drawing on years of experience and an extensive network of suppliers. Our attention to details was of utmost importance for the success of the event. The transportation needs and the logistics of the events were particularly complex as they involved various transfers, as well as excursions and movements to venues. We had teams based at the airport, the hotels, the cruise boat and in Mykonos that were coordinating with each other and the client, creating value all the time.

The unique features that Athens as a city, the coast of Attica and the Aegean Islands offer, the diverse scenery, the authenticity and the philoxenia extended, together with the dedication of the operations team at Siva, made this meeting a huge success and memorable to all.

Sound
Highly qualified technicians see through the demands of each project by using the most professional equipment in hand [loudspeakers, sound mixers, wireless microphones, moving heads, lighting digital consoles etc.], so as to come up with the best possible result for an ideal presentation to your audience.

Visual
Having at our disposal the latest high-technology visual systems, we can create giant seamless panoramas and unlimited screen configuration.

By using state-of the art systems (D-lite, I-lite, R series projectors), supporting visual devises (scalers, visual mixers, converters), voting systems and presentations we always take you one step further from the ordinary.

Lighting
Departments that deal with the most demanding parts of your indoor and outdoor events, the special requirements in lighting design.

Highly qualified technicians see through the demands of each project by using the most professional equipment in hand, so as to come up with the best possible result for an ideal presentation to your audience.

Congress System
By using high-tech quality sound systems and simultaneous interpretation equipment, the company is able to give great potentials to your conferences and events [i.e. coverage of 31 languages at the same time, digital recording of the proceedings etc.], so as to keep you satisfied in any way possible.

IT Department
Latest technology PC’s and Macintosh are installed to networks, mainly used in congresses’ registration process, secretarial support and speakers’ presentations (setting backgrounds, assisting in PowerPoint slides). Highly qualified technical staff, install the Interactive Voting System (IVS) to the PCs in order to have the audience’s point of view when needed. Latest technological steps in the IT department involve streaming and web casting in meetings and congresses which is the latest trend in presentations or video conferences.

Service Department
The Service Department specializes in the maintenance of the Rental Department’s equipment, such as boosters, monitors, microphones e.t.c., as well as equipment of the clients of the Sales Department, should a problem occur in the clients’ installed devices.

Creative Design
The in-house stage-designing and construction department, after a thorough examination of the venue of your event, presents you a complete proposal for the decoration of the area according to your needs.
For close to 30 years, PRO EVENTS has brought technical expertise and innovation, creativity and a uniquely flexible approach to the most challenging local and international event productions.

Our breadth of talent allows us to supplement your existing team’s capabilities or to provide fully integrated production design—from initial proposal and design through to budgeting, scheduling, floor plans, management, installation/dismantle and operation of audiovisual equipment, audio systems, lighting, on-site technical direction and right on through the event. This approach allows us to integrate all required elements into a comprehensive technical budget thus offering the client one point of contact for the entire technical process.

All Pro Events technical equipment is self owned and all constructions are handled in-house which not only leaves no room for “surprises” but offers competitive rates and flexibility on budget negotiations. Pro Events can consult with you to do a thorough analysis of available options and help you determine the event program that’s exactly right for you and your company.

Whether for an audience of 50 or 500 in any chosen venue, a single day meeting or a multi-day conference or symposium, our technical services ensure an outstanding event—on schedule and within budget.

Our philosophy is simple: Listen, Create, Plan and Execute. No production is too big; no detail too small. Collaboration is key; teamwork crucial. Ensure the integrity of the creative vision; improve efficiency and cost-effectiveness; make sure nothing falls through the cracks.

Pro Events is able to work in any venue either locally or abroad and furthermore is the preferred Audio Visual supplier for both the Athenaeum Intercontinental Hotel and the Athens Hilton Hotel.

Tumlare is a leading European Destination Management Company with a reputation of providing the highest quality of products and services. Our global network, incorporating over 30 offices in four Continents, is combined together with an extensive local knowledge and personal touch.

Tumlare has been providing an outstanding experience and complete satisfaction to all global travellers for over 39 years. Being a leading DMC we have acquired some of the best professionals in the industry who are involved in our main business areas. Tourist Groups, Individual Travellers, Meetings, Incentives and Sport Events, Special Interest Tourist Groups, Technical Visits, Cultural and Thematic Travel and Cruise Destination Management.

Tumlare is a Member of JTB Group, with strong financial backup, which consist the guarantee of success for your event since MISSION as well as VALUES are common:

To give value for money to all global travellers and business partners alike.

To give an impressive experience and complete satisfaction to all global travellers by providing additional service quality at the European destination and enriching the life of the customer.

To contribute to the successful and sustainable development of the destination itself.

To offer value to our main business partners in Europe and at the same time contribute to the local society.

- Destination Management
- Meetings and Incentives
- Conferences
- Venue and Accommodation Management
- Cruising and shore excursions
- Sport events
- Special Interest
- Technical Visits
- Tourist Groups & Individual Travellers

Tumlare is the premier choice to provide the business solutions to match your meeting, incentive and conference needs. Our experienced dedicated staff throughout our extensive network of offices provide on location expert planning and execution.

We have had the pleasure of serving some of the world’s largest and most demanding companies and organisations.

We have the expertise and resources required to design and produce every element of your programme. Long ago we learned that our client’s challenges inspire us to find creative solutions that not only meet their expectations, but exceed them as well.

Tumlare develops creative solutions for conferences, incentive programs, pre and post tours, spouse programs, special events, team building events, and a wide array of their related services. Do you have to organise a high-level board meeting for 20 executives or perhaps organise a meeting for 500, or even a product launch for 2000 people? Tumlare is your direct link for all your special planning needs. Our team of local experts live and work in Greece. They have invaluable knowledge on design and planning Special Interest tours for you. Further, they have the local contacts to make sure the programs meet your criteria.

Normally, organizations will send their own lecturer or guide to accompany the tour. This will sometimes be an art historian or an archaeologist.

Tumlare will work with the guide to ensure all arrangements are taken care of in advance, all accommodation, all transportation, all entrances and all tickets if required so that the guide has nothing to worry about except guiding.

If additional local knowledge is required, Tumlare is happy to provide additional assistance with researching and securing local experts.

We can arrange everything and for your inspiration we suggest the following:

Art, history, literature, theatre, cultural exchange, architecture, ballet, music, choral performances, opera, politics, farming, gastronomy, wine, beer, shopping, special events, bird watching, and much more.

Tumlare has, for many years, operated technical visits within a broad range of fields. From visiting pensioners homes to visiting a local kindergarten, we have now transitioned into areas of high technology companies.

Our team of local staff is invaluable when matching local experts with guests from abroad, putting special programs together, meeting the needs of both parties.

The increasing number of tours, with demand for more and more specialist fields over the past years, has enabled us to create a network of contacts that gives us the advantage of smooth communication and operation.

For many years Tumlare has handled all of the arrangements for some of the biggest sporting names Tumlare Sport specializes in the detailed and precise arrangements required by sporting teams traveling to both games, tournaments, and training camps. We have handled many major football teams playing cross Europe in the pan European tournaments taking care of all arrangements for the teams, fans, sponsors and press with individual programs and hotels to suit each.

Tumlare Sport will ensure that the team hotels are adequately briefed on training requirements, special meals, private rooms and special check-in and check-out requirements and equipped with the necessary fitness and leisure facilities.

Sponsors hotels will, similarly, be required to cater differently providing a wide range of extras and we will provide exciting pre and post programmes of dining and entertainment.

Tumlare Sport arranges all separate ground transportation for sponsors to and from the venues, arranging individual services as and when required.

Special arrangements can also be made to ensure smooth check-in arrangements at Airports both on arrival and departure. Should a dedicated aircraft be required from team and/or sponsors, this can be easily arranged. Through its wealth of contacts, Tumlare Sport can charter any size of aircraft from anywhere to anywhere.

Tumlare Sport is perfectly suited to cater for any sporting occasion and we have dealt with many different sports ranging from football, basketball, aikido!

Our Company is specializing in Helicopter Air Taxi transfers and also has a high reputation as a Flight school for fixed and rotary wing. It also has its own maintenance facilities and dealership with Robinson Helicopters.

Our Flight Operations Manager and owner of the company Mr. Elias Sofianos has 35 years background in Aviation as a fighter pilot, flight instructor and flight examiner. He also has 22,500 accident-free flight hours and he has set a high standards flight organization with a high respect in safety.

This means that only high performance pilots will join Superior Air. A continuous training of our staff in order to meet the highest European standards is a “must” for us. All pilots are frequently evaluated by our quality staff and also the Hellenic Civil Aviation Authority. Our excellent safety record is a considerable factor in choosing Superior Air.

So, why should you choose Superior Air? Because...

• We are certified and fly according to the latest strict European Regulations.
• Because we are owners, pilots and mechanics so we have an absolute control of our company
• We have all our helicopters equipped with floats to fly over water.
• We have our own maintenance facility according to European EASA 145 standards.
• We have our own CAMO (Continuous Airworthiness Management Organization).
• We are authorized dealers and service center for Robinson helicopters and authorized to maintain Bell helicopters.
• We continuously train and evaluate our pilots to the strictest European standards.
• You will get on board a very well maintained helicopter in perfect condition.
• Our pilots have a deep knowledge of this job.
• We never had a disappointed customer.
• Our company was born by pilots, not businessmen.
• We have passion for Aviation.
• We know every hidden corner of this country.

Superior Air has carried out thousands of flights in destinations around Greece.

Throughout the year, people from around the world have trusted us for their transfers in any possible location. All agencies and brokers have been using Superior Air’s helicopters in order to perform all kinds of flights such as:

• Leisure/Touristic transfers
• Business/VIP transfers
• Sightseeing flights
• Pilgrimage Tourism flights
• Aeromedical flights
• Aerial Photo-shooting and video-shooting
• Aerial work flights

Superior Air has 5 helicopters based in Athens, Santorini and Mykonos in order to fulfill your needs, whatever your location and destination is.

For us, each customer is unique and is treated with respect and discretion. Our passenger’s safety is our goal and top priority and this is why we are continuously screening, inspecting and maintaining our helicopters according to all European and International Authorities regulations as well as according to the manufacturer’s requirements.

Our highly trained and experienced pilots will make your flight enjoyable and relaxing and you will always reach your destination on the agreed time schedule.

The flight with Superior Air is a Superior feeling!

Our Helicopter Fleet

• Bell 407, 6 pax capacity
• EC120B, 4 pax capacity
• R44, 3 pax capacity

Case study

This Year, Superior Air hosted a memorable Christmas Party for the orphan children from the “Smile of the Child” and needy children from the municipality of Megara. We feel that every company after a successful year should give something back to the ones who need help and support.

The children had the time of their lives as the party included magicians, entertainers, music, Christmas menu and of course many gifts which Santa Claus gave them after arriving by helicopter!

Many of our Aviation friends contributed to the celebration as they also came with their children and enjoyed the party.

Superior Air will always try to help and be there to the less fortunate by organizing events in order to offer joy, gifts, food and clothing.

Aleria is located in the upcoming Metaxourghio area of Athens. It has succeeded in becoming one of the best restaurants in Athens as a consequence of offering a harmonious combination of an elegant and artistically designed decor with a cuisine that is world class in its inventiveness and quality.

The designer Sofia Kehayiadaki, managed to strike the perfect balance between luxury and ambience, creating a restaurant which is quite formal but still unpretentious, cozy and elegant.

Equally unique is also the space of the inner yard, where the restaurant is housed in the summer. The paved area provides the required privacy and relaxation, while still in the centre of Athens. Even here, it is interesting to observe the unique tables featuring mosaic motives previously used on the floors of the original neo-classical building.

But what is a restaurant if not the food it offers. And the food in Aleria rises up to the challenge and is equally beautiful as the ambiance. Gikas Xenakis, our prominent and highly awarded chef, is one of the best proponents of the New Greek Cuisine movement which now attracts the most talented chefs in Greece. His philosophy is one that combines a calm but confident control of the modern cooking techniques with his memories of traditional home food cooked with the best and freshest ingredients that the sea and land of Greece offers. Examples of the dishes he creates are: wild mushrooms ragout with trahana and parsley sauce, slowly cooked pork belly with celery root puree, coriander sauce and pickled onion; mageiritsa, the traditional soup eaten in Easter, is given by the chef a creative twist and is cooked with seafood maintaining however its original taste. As far as desserts are concerned, foam and mousse of rice pudding with bitter chocolate, cinnamon and lemon sorbet has now become one of the most celebrated dishes in Athens.

At Aleria you will enjoy Greek fine dining in wonderful surroundings in what is considered as one of the best value for money restaurants.
A restaurant in the sky? Yes, it can be! An extraordinary culinary proposal - in the center of Athens - welcomes you! A table for 22 people, along with our experienced chefs who are preparing a 5 course menu, lifts you up to 50 meters and offers once in a lifetime experience over the city. Would you dare?

Dinner in the Sky takes you to heaven, while the nightlife of Athens “awakens”. Enjoy the city panorama as the table rotates slowly. The illuminated Acropolis gives an enchanting spectacle to Greek and foreign visitors. Bet that the selfies you take here will get the most Likes!

Impress your friends, loved ones or colleagues by inviting them to a special dinner or make your stay in Athens even more interesting by combining exceptional food with spectacular views, so you can say that you saw all of Athens indeed!

Try special, modern tastes inspired by the Greek tradition accompanied by delicious local wines.

Dinner in the Sky is on from May at Technopolis, in Gazi. Make your reservation through www.dinnerinthesky.gr and get ready to experience unique moments.

Because everything seems more beautiful from above!
A particularly elegant restaurant in Athens, located in the garden of the Athens Concert Hall.

Fuga is a member of the Trastelis Group of restaurants (Spondi and Hytra). A restaurant in the garden of the Athens Music Hall was missing from the heart of Athens. The space is arty but open and accessible to the public, regardless of the Athens Concert Hall performances. It has a separate entrance (1 Kokkali Street) and is also accessible through the parking lot, where specific labeling directs the guests to the restaurant.

Fuga Restaurant is on the top of the verdant hillside garden and has a great city view. The space is modern, with simple lines, earthy tones and wood which create an impressive atmosphere.

Fuga Garden is situated in the Music Hall Gardens and operates during the summer period. A more relaxing atmosphere with classic yet with a twist cocktails are served at the bar and a more casual dinner menu is a great way to enjoy an evening in a hidden Athenian garden.

The philosophy of the cuisine: a return to simplicity with favorite Italian and Mediterranean flavors and emphasis on the quality of the ingredients. Our chef and his team experiments with simple methods and combinations of the ingredients, creating dishes that can be easily remembered and are based on the Mediterranean and Italian cuisine. As he says: ‘For me it is very important to make dishes that the customer can understand. He can easily recognize what is on the plate. This means that the flavors are well defined.’

The Fuga cuisine is friendly and flavored according to season. The ingredients are always fresh and carefully selected.

Signature dishes: classic risotto alla Milanese, a simple yet great spaghetti Pomodoro, the non-traditional Osso Buco, the famous Burger with homemade lemon mayonnaise and the creamy tiramisu. The wine list includes Italian value for money labels and specially selected Greek wines.

Fuga is the ideal place for business meetings, but also for friends and families who appreciate good food at reasonable prices. It is open every day all year round (winter in the hall and summer in the garden). It also welcomes pre and after concert guests offering a special menu.

*In music, fuga is a contrapuntal composition in two or more voices, built on a subject (theme) that is introduced at the beginning in imitation and recurs frequently in the course of the composition.
Located at 52 Adrianou Street in Monastiraki, just a stone’s throw away from the historic city center with stunning views of the Acropolis, the new Hard Rock Cafe Athens is a must-see for both visitors and locals alike.

The Café-Bar area features a beautiful internal atrium area with a sliding roof top. Guests can enjoy fresh, high-quality food from our food menu which includes a selection of our starters and salads, as well as our delicious Legendary burgers and many more. Hard Rock Cafe’s food items, are complimented by an extensive, award-winning drinks menu that includes Hurricanes, Margaritas, signature favorites and Alternative Rock (alcohol-free) beverages, all available in Hard rock souvenir glassware. The restaurant "Hytra", whose name derives from the ancient Greek terracotta vase, first opened in 2004 in "Psiri", one of the oldest districts of Athens in the historical center of the city.

In 2010, the restaurant was awarded its first Michelin star and has retained it since.

In 2012 it was awarded a second Michelin star, the first for “Blue Hytra” restaurant, hosted at Westin Resort in Athens. Alongside, Hytra receives annually enthusiastic reviews evaluations and other distinctions. The same year, the restaurant relocated to the 6th floor of the Onassis Cultural Centre in Syngrou Avenue and was recently redesigned by award-winning architectural firm Divercity.

In warmer months of the year the restaurant moves to the 7th floor of the building, offering a unique outdoor setting with panoramic view of the Acropolis, Lycebettus hill and the city skyline.

PHILOSOPHY

High quality service and hospitality through a number of different services, the creation of a high aesthetic, warm and homely atmosphere, the continuous update and development without exaggeration in the approach to the concept of food and the emergence of Greek cuisine through Greek raw materials and recipes are the main components of the philosophy of the restaurant that has an intense relationship with the cultural activity of the Onassis Cultural Centre.

KITCHEN

“Hytra” restaurant has developed its culinary identity based on the approach and the redefinition of the rich cultural heritage of Greek gastronomy, by giving a contemporary expression in execution and the presentation of dishes. As a harmonious and complementary coexistence of two different approaches around the meaning of Greek food, the two separate restaurant menus, the “Hytra” menu and the “Hytra Apla” menu that share a single space, interact in a gastronomic “choreography” in order to elevate the Greek cuisine through two constantly changing cards, having in common the domestic raw materials and recipes.

Rate per person
- Gourmet: €70 - €80
- Hytra Apla: €40 - €50

Touted as one of the world’s finest Greek restaurants, Estiatorio Milos by restaurateur Costas Spiliadis features fine Mediterranean cuisine and has a longstanding reputation for serving the freshest, most pristine Greek seafood daily not only in Athens, but in New York City, Montreal, Las Vegas, in Miami and in London.

The focus at Milos is always on finding the best the world has to offer: the best produce, the best honey, the best yogurt, and certainly the best fish and seafood. Through extensive travel and research, we have hand selected and developed close relationships with our suppliers, mostly farmers and fishermen that provide Milos with these important materials. All are dedicated to delivering fish and seafood with a commitment to freshness, exceptional quality and respect for the environment. A lot of our produce is grown on organic farms all over the U.S., Greece and Canada. We have located premier sources for each product.

Milos prides itself on its delicious food. The idea is perfect simplicity: Preserve each ingredient’s distinct flavour and nutritional value.

Mystic is a Multiplex Facility of Art and Taste in a 350 sqm renovated building, 120 years old, just behind the Panathenian Stadium, where the first (recent) Olympic Games took place in 1896.

On the ground-level area one can see “Mpakalaki” (little old-fashioned grocery shop) with products by small-scale producers from all over Greece, such as wines, tsipouro, honey, cold cuts, cheese, legumes, herbs. It’s air-conditioned and with the capacity to seat 20 persons.

In the cellar there are barrels from different wine varieties, which someone can taste for free before selection, as well as bottled wines of fine quality from small producers. The cellar area could be booked for private meetings/celebrations and up to 25 seated px capacity.

The air-conditioned central hall and cocktail bar has the capacity to seat 75 persons.

Finally, at the open terrace one can admire a simulation of old Athenian atmosphere, since an Athenian kiosk back from the 1950s is creating the bar setting, vintage tables and chairs, as surrounded by flowers and herbs which fuse their fragrance in the atmosphere. The terrace area has a capacity to seat 75 persons. Terrace is closed from Christmas until 10 of March.

Apart from the Mystic Pizza and Pasta Menu, with cannabis and dinkel flour, fresh salads, and vegan selections, one can taste traditional Greek recipes such as goat ala Samothrace, chickpeas with pastrami or kavourmas and shrimps in the oven, sautéed greens (“horta”), kavourma with eggs, smoked seafood and many more!

The music selected to embed the place is jazz-ethnic ballads, always in a low tone volume. The place also accommodates live jazz mini concerts, painting, photography and sculpture exhibitions on a regular basis.
THE RESTAURANT

Elegance, refinement and authenticity. These are the words that describe the atmosphere and philosophy of Spondi. Created by Apostolos Trastelis in 1996, the restaurant is now a point of reference not only in Athens, but in all of Greece. Discreet, intimate, with two delightful courtyards and two equally charming dining rooms - one in an elegant room built from reclaimed bricks in the style of a vaulted cellar.

Our food is prepared with the freshest of products, and thus the menu changes according to the seasons and, of course, according to the creative imagination of our Chef. He treads skilfully between creativity and tradition, modernity and classicism. He delights the eye with artful presentation and the mouth with exquisite flavours touched by a hint of exoticism. Top quality seasonal ingredients are used in imaginative, deftly executed and stunningly presented modern French dishes. Greek, French and Italian wines feature on an impressive list. Such food, served impeccably, deserves an appropriate atmosphere, elegant and stylish, which Spondi, a member of the prestigious “Grandes Tables du Monde” is proud to offer.

The restaurant is situated in the center of Athens, in the district of Pagrati, next to the little square of Varnava, 100m behind the Panathenaic marble stadium, where the 1st modern Olympic Games took place.

THE AREA

The elongated Panathenaic Stadium, built for the first modern Olympic Games in 1896, acts as grand gateway to the otherwise purely Athenian neighborhood of Pangrati. This area of typical small squares, busy main roads and residential streets will give you a clear sense of what living in this metropolis is like. A walk up quiet Markou Mousourou Street on the west side of the stadium will bring you past the First National Cemetery to Mets, home to many expats. Turn right to reach the charming Varnava square. East of the stadium, commercial Eratosthenous Street leads to rather nondescript square Plastira, from where Effranoros Street continues uphill to square Profiti Ilia, crowned by a huge church. Among the standard four- to six-story apartment blocks that typify Athens, Pangrati also boasts some genuinely authentic tavernas and the odd trendy bar.

THE AWARDS

Seven consecutive years voted “Best Restaurant in Greece” (“Athinorama” Golden Chef’s Hat Award). In 2002, Spondi won its 1st Michelin star, in 2008, Spondi won its 2nd Michelin star, and in 2013 was voted by “Restaurant Magazine” as the 97 best restaurant in the world.

“Vassilenas” is a true Athenian institution with a history that spans almost a hundred years. Born as a humble taverna in an impoverished neighborhood close to the Piraeus port in 1920, it later became the iconic restaurant of the 50s and 60s where Winston Churchill and Sofia Laren, Tayron Power and Romy Schneider have dined. Recently relocated to the center of Athens, it has become a modern, cosmopolitan restaurant winning culinary awards year after year. A long journey filled with memories of family recipes that continue to inspire our cuisine today.

THE PLACE

“Vassilenas” is located in a stunningly elegant space designed by acclaimed architects Maria Kokkinou and Andreas Kourkoulas. With its volcanic pumice-stone walls, lit wine bottles hanging from the ceiling and black metal sheet elements, it makes discreet references to the history of the restaurant while creating a unique cozy environment.

FOOD

We offer inspirational Greek fine-dining cuisine. Our philosophy combines memories from our grandparents’ home-cooked food with a genuinely creative spirit and a wise use of modern cooking techniques. We create dishes with distinct flavors which our guests will cherish forever.

Our offer includes fish, meat and vegetarian options. We also propose flexible, tailor-made menus for groups. “Vassilenas”, over the years, has become famous for the tasting menu first introduced in the 1920s! We continue the tradition proposing a 7-course signature tasting menu which allows guests to taste all of our emblematic dishes.

The Athens Open Tour is a Greek company which operates in the historic center of Athens and the city of Piraeus. Our company was founded in 2010 and its fleet counts 6 new yellow-blue double-decker buses.

Every day, visitors of Athens and Piraeus select our services in order to visit and photograph major landmarks of our history and culture.

Moreover, since the frequency of the buses is every 30 minutes, visitors are given the opportunity to hop off and walk, eat, go shopping, visit a museum, according to their desire, and then hop on again to continue their tour with our buses, using the same ticket.

Our services are supported by audio guide, available in 12 languages (English, Greek, German, Italian, French, Spanish, Japanese, Portuguese, Arabic, Turkish and Japanese), through which historical and general information of the city and the monuments is given. To our clients is provided a set of head phones, a map of Athens and Piraeus and a city guide.

The Athens tour takes 90 minutes and the one to Piraeus 60 minutes without getting off the bus. During the summer time additional schedules ensure the visitors a panoramic view of the city.

Our staff consists of 22 persons (drivers, vendors and stewards), well educated, whom aim is to inform the customers for our services and to provide them with the necessary information they need in order to have a pleasant stay in the city.

Via the web site www.theopentour.com, visitors are given the opportunity to see the time schedule of our company and provide themselves with electronic tickets.

Athens Open Tour will continuously diversify and enrich its main product in order to offer more and more complete services to its clients.

The benefits of using our services
• 24h & 1 day free
• Buses run every 30 minutes
• Free City Guide
• Steward on board
• Discounts at business partners
The Athens Walking Tours were created in 2004, out of a need to offer a different and more intimate approach to the ordinary city sightseeing tours. Since then we have been welcoming visitors to Greece with innovative, fresh and memorable tour programs and activities.

All the tours are conducted in small groups of no more than 18 participants, they are suitable for people of all ages, conducted in a relaxed pace and are never rushed or hurried.

We operate small group, historical, walking tours in Athens and Chania that include most of the major attractions showing visitors around the most significant sites through a fresh, local perspective: from the grand monuments of the past and the pivotal historic moments they mark to contemporary Greece.

We also offer wonderful small group culinary tours, such as the Food Tour. Leaving the tzatziki and moussaka Greek food stereotypes far behind, our food experts lead the visitor through an alternative food stroll and introduce them to small, hidden specialty food shops. They provide valuable insight both on the unique and intricate culinary heritage of Greece as well as the famous Mediterranean diet, hailed today as a model of healthy living. The Cooking Lesson & Dinner introduces visitors to the delightful variety of Greek flavours and culinary temptations, while the Wine Tasting is an introduction to the Greek wines.

All our Tours are designed to offer the visitor of Athens and Chania a unique, enriching and all encompassing experience of each city’s ancient and historical past together with its present, modern, everyday life. The small group tours are available daily all year round. We also offer private tours which can be custom made to suit your needs, One day excursions outside Athens, Private taxi transfers, minivans or coach for larger groups and shore excursions for cruisers arriving in the port of Piraeus.

Athens Walking Tours are consistently given high ratings in all travel sites and social media. On TripAdvisor we are highly rated, more than any other tour operator in Athens, and on Viator Athens page we have 4 out of 5 Top Tours. Our tours have earned worldwide media recognition from CNN the Herald Tribune, the Miami Herald and many more major international and local news agencies and publications as well as Greek national media such as, ERT (Greek National Television).

Reviews:
“This tour was a perfect introduction to the city...”
The guide pointed out things we would not have noticed if we had been walking around the city, and really brought it to life. ... it was a really relaxed stroll around the city, gardens, and Acropolis.
Nick, March 2012 / VIATOR

“A Must do in Athens”
Athens Walking tours is the best way to see the Acropolis and the surrounding areas. It was a perfect balance of walking and rest. This is the only way to see the sights!
Michael C, January 2012 / TRIPADVISOR

“Interesting, entertaining and DELICIOUS!”
Rather than a normal pre-packaged rush around a few tourist-oriented stores, it felt more like an Athenian friend taking us to her favourite eateries.
GreenGlutton, November 2011 / TRIPADVISOR

“Really well picked places and yummy delicacies”
This tour really needs to be recommended, if you wanna get an impression not only of the Greek cuisine, but also of the Greek way of life...
Antonia Miccoli, September 2011 / VIATOR

Epiculiar’s mission is to provide unique interactive itineraries to travelers looking for genuine experiences. By participating in our tours, guests get personalized insights into Greek lifestyle, gastronomy and culture. Our local hosts make our guests feel welcome and comfortable while indulging in local tastes, exploring hidden gems and creating lifetime memories.

One of our guests shared her experience in a way that made us feel our mission was accomplished:

“In all of my travels, the best experiences I have had have always been when I visited a local who showed me around. Our host shared her food and her city with us in a way that made us feel like family visiting from abroad. The itinerary had obviously been carefully planned with a great variety of food and drinks iconic to Greece. The eateries chosen each had a special explanation of why, which demonstrated support for small, local businesses and also indicated that a lot of thought and heart has gone into planning. The experience taught us that this city has an invaluable amount of tradition intermixed with trendiness as well as an abundance of fresh, local food of exceptional quality. We now know of so many special places in the city that would have passed us by, had we not had a local excited to share them with us. This is no impersonal exhibition of local dishes. Expect to be treated differently by your tour host at Epiculiar.”

Reviews:
“Excellent experience!”
Our trip was extraordinary with special local food at places known only by locals, most friendly guide. To summarize we came for the food and got so much more.
August 2017, TripAdvisor

“One word: wauw”
This tour was truly fantastic. Our guide was the cutest. She knew all the locals we visited really well so everyone made us feel very welcome. If you love food and trying new things: this is the tour for you.
July 2017, GetYourGuide

“Excellent insight into Athens life”
This tour included everything one would not typically find on the mass tourism tours. A perfect way to get a feel for Athens and how it is experienced from a local perspective.

In The Know, Concierge Services is an innovative concierge service based in Athens, Greece, launched in 2016.

Our company provides a unique lifestyle management service specializing in creating tailor-made experiences pinned in memory.

Our expertise lies in designing and producing high-quality, sophisticated and flexible concepts to enrich our bespoke itineraries for travelers, hoarders of the exceptional and ideal who embrace, discover, and immerse themselves in the entire experience of the culture, people and settings of the places they visit.

To us, true travel is nothing short of a brief crusade to embrace the Other. Space is a fixed dimension, and places are bound to be there for at least a couple more centuries. What really forges the precious memories you’ll cherish for life is your contact with the locals and their cultural baggage. The good times and the occasional mishap; these unique, hand-made jigsaw pieces of your own personal journey.

The fragrance of lavender, the colors of the summer season vegetables, the animals that welcome you as you approach them, this is the The Margi Farm.

Just a few meters away from the center of Kalyvia town in Attica region, in a green land, The Margi Farm unfolds. Surrounded by vineyards and olive trees, on our 20 acre field, we use natural farming practices by enriching the land with our own manure and by watering through our own irrigation system. Colours, scents and flavours complement one another throughout all the seasons. This is what we want to share with you on our Farm. Cold pressed olive oil, rose wine from our Mesogaia region, traditional tsipouro, fresh soft cheese made from goat milk, artichokes from our flower beds, wild asparagus from the surrounding hills, herbs and vegetables all year round, seasonal fruits full of fragrance, wild greens and eggs from our chickens are just a few of nature's gifts that fill our table.

The farm’s cuisine philosophy is to use excellent raw material with minimal processing. Apart from the products produced at the farm, every other product used for the menu is carefully selected. Local farmers help this effort by supplying excellent raw material thus contributing to an excellent result.

During the summer season, The Farm to Fork Experience, will take place every week. The farm opens its doors to the visitors, where every guest collects the vegetables of their choice as well as fresh eggs, which then can cook with the chef’s help or on their own.

With the unique landscape of exceptional beauty as a background, next to the monastery table, cooking lessons, business dinners and unforgettable family events are organized.

We invite you to enjoy the gifts of the land and share our knowledge of nature, at The Margi Farm!

Amazing planning with high quality options. Excellent choice of wineries, very knowledgeable guides and fantastic gourmet restaurants off the beaten path. A trip with Vins is a must for all wine lovers/travelers.

John L.

The well-travelled can tell a valuable trip organizer right away. If you are a responsible, committed, do-it-all-by yourself-traveller, there is nothing more comforting than knowing that someone else can take care of all your trip details and can do it even better than yourself. Lay back, relax and enjoy a safe trip where your budget has been correctly allocated for the best possible experience. I recommend vins - oenotourism events without reservation. (Above all: In Vino Veritas!)

C.P.

I had the pleasure to participate more than once to VINS oenotouristic excursions. The degree of professionalism as well as the desire and ability to accommodate the particular demands of the participants, impressed me. It is an extremely professional and simultaneously friendly and responsive, value adding organization. I would recommend their services without any hesitation.

Your window to the Greek Wine, the Land and its People
Yoleni’s started as an innovative online Greek delicatessen, where more than 1800 local products of high quality were available, produced by more than 180 local suppliers.

The dedication to point out the wealth of Greek gastronomy, led Yoleni’s to open its Flagship store in Kolonaki, in November 2016, a multiplex strongly resembling the traditional grocery stores of the 50’s and 60’s. Visitors are able to enjoy a unique experience by tasting high quality Greek products, exceptional Greek wine varieties, get to know extra virgin olive oil and recreate traditional Greek recipes. Upon entering, the visitor will experience firsthand what Greek hospitality really means. A welcome treat with freshly baked bread, a variety of Greek freshly-cut cheeses and cold-cuts will act as an introduction to the vast variety of flavors you are about to explore. The aromas of Greek pita, coming right out of the oven upon your order, will thrill you! Next stop is the traditional Greek deli shop, where you can fill your shopping basket with treats from every corner of Greece, all pure and preservatives-free.

If you are planning to visit Athens, Yoleni’s is the No1 place to go, in order to fully experience every aspect of Greek Gastronomy.

Such experiences include:

- Hands-on Cooking Classes, where you will learn all the secrets of famous Greek recipes, under the guidance of Yoleni’s head chef.
- Greek Olive oil tasting in the first olive oil bar in Greece. Learn all about the benefits, fun facts and secrets of extra virgin olive oil, through an interactive and informative seminar.
- Wine tasting of the most famous Greek wine varieties, accompanied by mouthwatering Greek cold-cuts and cheeses, under the guidance of Yoleni’s expert sommeliers.

All the above experiences are available upon booking.

Aiming to spread the word worldwide, Yoleni’s announced the opening of its first US store, in Providence, Rhode Island in the beginning of 2018. This is the first of many steps towards making the Greek gastronomic culture and heritage known all around the globe!

History
HAPCO (Hellenic Association of Professional Congress Organizers), from its foundation in 1996 to this day, continues its mission dynamically, with the aim to represent professional congress organizers as well as companies offering a broad range of services and products relevant to the congress market.

Over the years, HAPCO, with the essential contribution of its members, has developed into one of the principal institutions in the Greek tourism sector and has been acknowledged as the official partner of the Greek State on issues relating to the meetings industry.

HAPCO’s international presence is equally important, as it constitutes a founding member of EFAPCO (European Federation of Associations of Congress Organisers) and participates frequently in its activities.

Members
HAPCO’s members, which nowadays exceed 110, stand out for their dynamic presence in the realm of tourism and include congress organizers, conference centres, convention centres and resort hotels, hotels with conference facilities, audiovisual companies, catering companies, booth design- and construction companies, publishing houses, business consultants, public relations and advertising companies, software companies, car rental and VIP transportation companies, airlines, cruise companies, educational institutions, etc.

Thanks to their increased specialization, significant know-how and long-time experience, HAPCO’s members offer services of high quality that boost the competitiveness of Greek congress tourism and, concomitantly, increase the success of each organization.

Partnerships and Alliances
Given the role of tourism as a sector of heightened national importance, HAPCO is intent on further extending its cooperation with other tourist institutions, both in Greece and abroad. At the same time, through activities and proposals, it strengthens even further its collaboration with the Ministry of Culture & Tourism, as well as the Greek National Tourism Organisation, in order to achieve the promotion of congress tourism outside the Greek borders, through the GNTO offices abroad.

HAPCO plays a major role in promoting Athens as a prime conference destination and in attracting large congresses to Greece. It is a member of the Association of Greek Tourism Enterprises and maintains close relations with major national organizations in the realm of tourism.
INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF CONFERENCE INTERPRETERS (AIIC) –GENERAL

With over 2800 members in almost 100 countries offering services in 50 languages, AIIC is the only international association representing professional conference interpreters. It was established in 1953 and has its headquarters in Geneva.

The UN, the European Union, the Council of Europe, and many more international organisations recognise AIIC as their only official interlocutor in matters related to conference interpreting. The local section of AIIC currently has 34 members in Greece, and 5 in Cyprus.

AIIC sets the standards and watches over a profession which has little external regulation. It follows a strict admissions procedure and vouches for the professional credentials of its members.

All AIIC interpreters are bound by a rigorous code of professional conduct, and are expected to provide both a top level professional service and guarantee absolute confidentiality.

Why work with AIIC interpreters?

In a sector with scarce quality guarantees, all AIIC members will offer:

- Accredited interpreting skills and experience
- Faultless professionalism
- Expertise in working in an international environment and according to international standards
- Total confidentiality

AIIC members can also provide integrated solutions including:

- Access to a global interpreting network
- Counselling for conference organisers on issues such as: assessing client requirements, finding and hiring interpreters, advice on best practices and technical arrangements, logistics (signing contracts, single invoicing etc).
- Expert advice on the simultaneous interpretation (SI) equipment necessary and liaison with equipment providers.
Respect for the environment and helping those in need are important cultural aspects in all societies.

Protecting and managing the environment must be a foremost priority for all cities. At the Athens Convention & Visitors Bureau, we try to promote “green meetings & events” and we do our best to make environmentally friendly and responsible choices and proposals.

A “green meeting” has been defined as a “meeting that incorporates environmental considerations throughout all stages of the meeting in order to minimise the negative impact on the environment.” Green events include all aspects of the event planning process; from site selection to transportation, the environmental impact of the event can be significantly reduced with small changes that will not affect the whole experience.

How to “Green” your meetings

- Use paperless technology: Use new media and electronic technology to cut down your paper use. On the conference website allow for electronic registration and confirmation. Advertise using the web and/or email. Where necessary use post-consumer recycled paper and print on both sides.

- Reduce, Reuse, Recycle: Reduce giveaways and paper to delegates. Reuse items like conference bags or gifts by designing them to encourage reuse. Also consider this approach with signs by having removable/velcro items that can be changed around for different events. Recycle: Ensure that materials like paper, plastic, metals and glass are recyclable, and make sure they are recycled.

- Bulk up: Have the food and beverage supplier provide condiments in bulk wherever possible, and avoid disposable or individual packaging in favour of items that can be poured from jugs.

- Serve tap water: Athens has excellent water quality.

- Eat green: The Greek cuisine ensures the use of local organics on the menu.

- Walk/ Public transport: Encourage delegates to walk to and from meeting sessions. Alternatively, delegates can use the Athens eco-friendly transportation means, i.e. metro, hybrid buses, trolleybuses, trams.

- Save energy: Turn off lights, air-condition and equipment when not in use.

Green facts about Athens

- Athens International Airport Green Program Athens is a partner of the EU City Hush initiative

- Environmentally friendly public means of transportation, i.e. metro, tram, trolleybuses, hybrid buses

- Extensive use of solar boilers

- Recycling units program

- Installation of natural gas network

- Governmental incentives for withdrawal of old vehicles

- Good quality, safe drinkable water
Social Responsibility in Athens

Provide help and support to those in need should be an objective for every society to ensure social cohesion and welfare. The Athens Convention & Visitors Bureau can organize tailor made social responsibility activities for large groups during an event.

The City of Athens Homeless Shelter (KYADA) collects and distributes food and clothing to those who visit or are hosted at the shelter, as well as to families and individuals that the staff identifies as being in need.

- The “Food provision Center” distributes up to 1,500 lunch-packs daily. It also operates hostels, which provide accommodation to the homeless.
- The “Social Grocery” is a structure within the Foundation’s scope of activities. Working closely with super-markets, it provides basic nutritional products to families and individuals for a period of six months.
- The “Social Pharmacy” offers free drugs to those in need.
- The “Athenian Agora” offers free clothing and shoes to individuals and families that cannot afford to purchase them.
- The “Food Station” supports vulnerable groups in the city by distributing food.

Should you wish to contribute in our efforts during your event, as part of a social responsibility program, you can support the City of Athens Homeless Shelter with donations, sponsorships or volunteer service.

Donate: Money or equipment, material to help us maintain, improve the Shelter’s facilities.

Sponsor: The Foundation distributes daily meals to more than 1500 people. You can sponsor any of those meals offered to the homeless and the poor or any of the maintenance works.

Volunteer: A considerable number of Athenians contribute by offering their services (food distribution, medical advice) for free.

Useful Tips

Banks

Major international banking institutions, credit card companies and ATMs in and around Athens are plentiful and easy to access. Banks are open to the public Monday through Thursday 08:00 to 14:30 and Fridays 08:00 to 14:00, except on public holidays. The “Open24” Bank (Eurobank) is open mornings and afternoons, as well as on Saturdays. Foreign currency may be exchanged for euros at most Greek and foreign banks and at exchange bureaus located in the city center and the Athens International Airport. Bring your passport when exchanging money as you will need it for the transaction. Traveler’s checks and credit cards issued by major companies are also widely recognized and an accepted means of purchasing items in Athens.

Internet Access

There are numerous internet cafés in Athens which are usually open all day long and are reasonably priced. You can also use the public internet WiFi connections in Syntagma Square, Kotzia Square, Theseion and Keramikos (WIFI public hotspots). Athens WiFi is a wireless hotspot based on 802.11b/g (WIFI). You can easily connect to the Internet while you are sitting on a bench or while enjoying your coffee. The connection is free provided that you choose the wireless network (SSID) athensWiFi and type the number which appears on your screen. The connection speed is quite fast and the capacity is 4Mbps.

Mobile Phones

Mobile phones automatically connect to Greek networks. You can also manually connect by choosing the option “network selection” on your mobile to get manually connected. Your mobile phone operator will inform you about roaming charges.

Of course, a cheaper solution is to get a Greek mobile telephone number as soon as you arrive in Athens and use this during your stay. You can buy a pay-as-you-go SIM card at any mobile phone shop and top up cards from the kiosks on the streets.

Time

Athens is in the Eastern-European time-zone, which means two hours ahead of Greenwich Mean Time. Additionally, Athens has daylight-saving time, meaning that during spring and summer (from March to October) the clocks are put forward one hour.

Weather and Climate

Athens is an ideal year-round city destination with comfortable and favourable climate conditions for travel and sightseeing. Rainfall is minimal (estimated at just 40 cm or 16 inches per year) and there are over 300 days of sunshine a year. Summers (June through August) are dry and hot with temperatures ranging from 78° to 94°F, or 20° to 34°C. Seasonal winds, known as meltemi, may accompany some hot days. September is often considered the ideal month for both urban activities and nearby island day trips with temperatures ranging from 70° to 83°F, or 20° to 28°C.

The Mediterranean climate makes for mild winters and even milder autumns in low-lying areas (such as Athens) with the coldest temperatures reported in January at a very temperate 41° to 55° F, or 5° to 13°C. Christmas in Athens is a delight considering you can take in the city’s lights and attractions at a relatively comfortable 45° to 50°F, or 7° to 14°C. Snowy, icy days are few but you can enjoy snow on the surrounding mountain peaks. In Athens, sunshine and outdoor living is almost always a given—no matter what time of the year.

Transportation

Metro
The Athens metro consists of 3 lines and provides transfers to the tram, bus routes and suburban rail at hub stations. At peak hours trains run every 5-6 minutes. Metro runs daily from 05:00 to 00:15. On Fridays and Saturdays the operation of metro (lines 2 & 3) is extended to 02:00.

For more information on all public transport modes: call 11185 and/or visit “www.tfa.gov.gr”

Buses and Trolleybuses
The Athens bus and trolleybus network is very extensive and provides connections of the Athens and Piraeus city centers with the most distant points in the metro area.

In general, buses and trolleybuses run daily from 05:00 to 23:30. However, there are several core bus lines which extend their operation until 12:30 (please make sure that you check the timetable before travelling either by phone (11185) or at www.tfa.gov.gr).

Airport Express Buses operate on a 24-hour basis connecting the Athens International Airport with the city center (Syntagma Sq.), the Piraeus Port and the Intercity Bus Terminal (KTEL Kifisos). After midnight services are also provided on four central bus routes (040, 500, 790 and X14) and one trolleybus (11).

For more information on all public transport modes: call 11185 and/or visit “www.tfa.gov.gr”

Tram
Environmentally friendly, with a view of the Saronic Gulf, the tram connects the center of Athens with the coastal suburbs. Four station hubs along its routes connect with metro. Total waiting time during peak hours is a maximum of 8-20 minutes depending on the line. The tram operates 5:00 to 00:00 while on Fridays and Saturdays tram operation is extended to 02:30.

For more information on all public transport modes: call 11185 and/or visit “www.tfa.gov.gr”

Intercity Bus Company or Association of Bus Operators (KTEL)
The Greek bus companies, or KTEL, serve destinations around Greece. Almost every city and village has a local KTEL coach service with routes to main city centers and the capital. There are two bus terminals: Kifissou 100 serves the Peloponnese (+30 210 5124910) and western Greece; the Liossion 260 terminal serves central and northern Greece (+30 210 8317096).
For more information: call 14505 or +30 210 88 08 000; www.ktel.org

Proastiakos (Suburban Rail)
This new high-speed rail system offers access to Irakleio and Neratziotissa, near the Athens Olympic Sports Complex. It also gets you to Kifissia, the hub of business in northern Athens; Doukissis Plakentias, an important urban residential area; Pallini and Kantza in the eastern part of the greater Athens area; and Koropi, a center of industrial development. A new route to Corinthos has been launched with plans to extend the network with added routes to Lavrio, Rafina, and Chalkida for easier mobility. It also serves Athens International Airport. The suburban rail runs daily from 06:00 until 12 midnight.
